CODE OF ETHICS

In the interest of promoting the highest quality of professional and personal conduct of its members, the following Code of Ethics and Conduct is endorsed by all members of Blue Marble:

a. Each member of Blue Marble shall refrain from exercising professional or personal conduct adverse to the best interests and objectives of the club. The objectives stated in the “Purpose/Principle “of our Constitution include: promoting education for and research in the sciences, encouraging the study, improving the practice, elevating the standards and advancing the cause of the sciences.

b. No member of the club shall misrepresent his or her education, training, experience, area of expertise, or membership status.

c. No member of the club shall misrepresent data or scientific principles upon which his or her conclusion or professional opinion is based.

d. No member of the club shall issue public statements that appear to represent the position of the club without having prior written authority from the Council of Officers.

Any member of the Blue Marble who violates any of the provisions of the Code of Ethics is subject to censure, suspension or expulsion by the Council of Officers.

As a member of Blue Marble, I acknowledge that:

I will uphold the standards of conduct established by Nevada State College (NSC) and Blue Marble.

I will uphold the constitution and bylaws of Blue Marble and will at all times conduct myself in a professional manner consistent with my vocational pursuits.

My signature acknowledges my personal responsibility to actively discharge these obligations.
