

Speech Rehab Services, LLC. Scholarship

Application Deadline: December 1, 2021

About this Scholarship:

Apply for awards based on your academic performance and written essay. There will be five-$1,000.00 scholarships for full time or part-time graduate students at NSC in the Speech-Language Pathology program. The scholarship will be awarded for the Spring 2022 semester.

This Annual scholarship was given to Nevada State College to celebrate and support the inaugural class of Master of Education in Speech-Language Pathology candidates.

About Speech Rehab Services:

Headquartered in Boca Raton, Florida, Speech Rehab Services, LLC is a highly specialized team of professionals. As clinicians they understand the challenges and rewards of a career in speech, occupational, or physical therapy. Speech Rehab Services seeks to assist students who have chosen to pursue a career in Speech-Language Pathology with scholarship, clinical placement, and professional support.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Eligible recipients must reapply each year and maintain all criteria to be eligible for the scholarship.
- The recipient must be accepted into the Master of Education in Speech-Language Pathology program
- Shall have and maintain no less than a 3.5 Nevada State College Cumulative Grade Point Average.

Application Requirements:

- Completed Application and Essay submitted to Kayla McDuffie at kayla.mcduffie@nsc.edu

Decision Process:

- Your essay will be reviewed anonymously by at least 2 members of the scholarship committee. A rubric is provided on the website.
- Any “ties” of scores will then result in GPA differences to differentiate ranking.

The Task:

Please write a 500-word essay in response to the following prompt:

Discuss two upcoming challenges for the field of Speech-Language Pathology? And, then explain one way you see yourself giving back to the field once you become a Speech-Language Pathologist.

Further Instructions:

Write a 500-word essay that demonstrates your professional thinking and writing.

Be sure to use succinct and academic language and provide details or examples that align with specifics of the prompt.

Take the initiative to use your support systems, such as the writing center.

Any references used must be well-cited using APA guidelines.

Dates:

Date of scholarship application due: December 1, 2021

Student will be notified by December 17, 2021

Application:

Name: _____

Permanent Address: _____

_____

Email Address: _____

Phone Number: _____