

2022-2023 Non-Federal Aid Application

If you are a U.S. citizen or non-citizen who is eligible to receive Federal Student Aid, you should not complete this application. Instead you should complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.gov.

By completing this application, the NSC Office of Financial Aid will be able to determine your need for certain NSC grants and work-study. The information you report on this form is subject to review and you may be asked to submit documents to support your responses.

A. Student's Information

Student's Last Name Student's First Name Student's M.I. NSHE ID Number

B. Citizenship Status—Check the box pertaining to your situation:

- I am a U.S. citizen or a non-citizen eligible to receive Federal Student Aid.
 ✓ Do not continue with this form
 ✓ Go to fafsa.gov and complete the FAFSA
- I am not a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen and will not complete the FAFSA.
 ✓ Continue completing the sections below

C. Student's Family Information

List below the people in your household. Include:

- Yourself (the student).
- Your parent(s) if you were born after January 1, 1998, are not married and do not have children whom you support.
- Your spouse, if you are married.
 - Your children, if any, if you will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2022, through June 30, 2023.
- Other people if they now live with you and you provide more than half of their financial support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2023.

If the people listed will also be attending college (excluding parent(s)), include:

- The full name of the college
- Indicate whether they will be enrolled at least half time in a degree, diploma, or certificate program at a postsecondary educational institution any time between July 1, 2022, and June 30, 2023.
- If more space is needed, attach a separate page with the student's name and NSHE ID number at the top.

E. Student's Expected Family Contribution (EFC)

You are going to use an online Expected Family Contribution (EFC) Calculator web site maintained by The College Board. The web site will not store your information, nor will the data you enter be forwarded to Nevada State College, the U.S. Department of Education, or any other entity. You will need to make screen shots from each section of the EFC Calculator web site and attach them to this form. If you require assistance completing the online EFC Calculator, please contact finaid@nsc.edu.

NOTE: The online Expected Family Contribution (EFC) Calculator web site is updated by The College Board after October 1st to request data for the future academic year. If applying for Financial Aid after October 1st for a prior academic year (2022/2023 vs 2023/2024) you will need to enter the tax information as stated on Step 6 below.

1. Go to <https://npc.collegeboard.org/app/efc>
2. Select 'Get Started'
3. When asked to "Pick a Formula" you must select "Federal Methodology (FM)."
4. You do NOT need to create a College Board Account (Select 'No' when given the option)
5. Do not leave any answers blank. If the answer to a question is zero, enter $0.
6. Your income information should include all forms of income received between January 1, 2020 and December 31, 2020.
 - a. If the CSS Profile is requesting information for a different Income Tax Year (due to completing this form after October 1st as indicated on the NOTE above) please provide a copy of all 2020 Income Tax documents (e.g. W-2's, 1099's, Income Tax forms, etc.)
7. Income information should be entered in U.S. dollars. (For example, you can Google, "How many Dollars is 100 Euros?")
8. Print each screen you complete and attach to this form. There should be one with each heading: Getting Started, Dependency Status, Parent Finances: Household/Income/Assets and/or Student Finances: Household/Income/Assets, and Results.)

F. Certification and Signatures

I certify that all of the information reported on this worksheet is complete and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand any false information may be cause for the denial, reduction, and/or cancellation of financial aid and may result in a balance owing to Nevada State College and the Nevada System of Higher Education.
